

Rivalz Network Data Privacy Policy

Last Revised: October 2024

Rivalz Technologies Ltd ("we," "our," "us") is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. This Data Privacy Policy (the "Policy") explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you participate in our services, including the Rivalz AI Network and Testnet (collectively, the "Services").

Information We Collect

We may collect and process the following data about you:

Personal Information

When you register for the Testnet, use our services, or otherwise interact with us, we may collect personal information that you provide to us, such as your name, email address, and other contact information.

Technical Information

We may collect information about the devices you use to access our services, including IP addresses, browser types, operating systems, and device identifiers.

Usage Information

We may collect information about how you use our services, including the pages and content you view, the dates and times of your visits, and other interactions with our services.

Blockchain Information

When you participate in any blockchain-related activity, such as connecting your wallet, submitting transactions, or signing with your wallet, we may collect blockchain-related information, such as your public wallet address and transaction details.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We use cookies and similar technologies to collect information about your usage of our services. These technologies allow us to:

- Enhance functionality and improve user experience.
- Analyze traffic and usage patterns.
- Deliver personalized content and advertisements.

You can manage your cookie preferences through your browser settings. For more information, please refer to our Cookie Policy.

How We Use Your Information

We use the information we collect for the following purposes:

To Provide and Maintain Our Services

We use your information to operate, maintain, and provide you with the features and functionalities of our services.

To Improve Our Services

We analyze the usage of our services to understand and improve our offerings, enhance user experiences, and develop new features.

To Communicate with You

We may use your contact information to send you updates, notifications, and other communications related to our services.

For Security and Fraud Prevention

We use your information to protect our services and users from security threats, fraud, and other illegal activities.

Legal Basis for Processing

We process your personal data under the following legal bases:

- Consent: When you have given explicit consent for specific processing activities.
 - Contractual Necessity: To fulfill our obligations under a contract with you.
 - Legal Obligation: To comply with legal and regulatory requirements.
 - Legitimate Interests: For purposes such as improving our services or ensuring security, provided such interests do not override your rights and freedoms.

Sharing Your Information

We will not share your information with third parties unless you explicitly consent to it, except in the following cases:

Service Providers

We may share your information with third-party service providers who perform services on our behalf, such as hosting, data analysis, payment processing, and customer support.

Business Transfers

In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets, we may transfer your information to the acquiring entity.

Legal Requirements

We may disclose your information if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities (e.g., a court or government agency).

Aggregate or De-Identified Data

We may share aggregate or de-identified information that cannot reasonably be used to identify you.

Security of Your Information

We take reasonable measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. These measures include:

- Encryption of sensitive data.
- Regular security audits.
- Implementation of access controls and monitoring systems.

However, no internet-based service can be completely secure, and we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information.

Data Retention

We will retain your personal information only for as long as is necessary for the purposes set out in this Policy. We will retain and use your personal information to the extent necessary to:

- Comply with our legal obligations (e.g., tax or regulatory requirements).
 - Resolve disputes.
 - Enforce our legal agreements and policies.

International Data Transfers

Your information, including personal information, may be transferred to and maintained on computers located outside of your state, province, country, or other governmental jurisdiction where the data protection laws may differ from those of your jurisdiction. By using our services and submitting your information, you consent to such transfer, storage, and processing.

Children's Privacy

Our services are not intended for use by children under the age of 18. We do not knowingly collect personally identifiable information from children under 18. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from a child under 18, we will take steps to delete such information from our servers.

Your Rights

Depending on your location, you may have certain rights regarding your personal information, including:

- Access: You have the right to request access to the personal information we hold about you.
- Correction: You have the right to request the correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal information.
- Deletion: You have the right to request the deletion of your personal information.
- Objection: You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information.
- Restriction: You have the right to request the restriction of the processing of your personal information.
- Portability: You have the right to request the transfer of your personal information to another entity.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us at info@rivalz.

Dispute Resolution

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the relevant data protection authority or contact us directly at info@rivalz. We are committed to resolving disputes promptly and transparently.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Policy on this page and updating the "Last Revised" date. You are advised to review this Policy periodically for any changes.
